DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

Date: July 2021

Newcourt Retirement Fund Managers Limited take the privacy of your data seriously. It is important that you know exactly what we do with personal information that you and others provide to us, why we gather it and what it means to you. This document is being provided to you in line with our obligations under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) which came into force on 25 May 2018. From that date, the GDPR, together with applicable Irish requirements, will amend existing data protection law and place enhanced accountability and transparency obligations on organisations when using your information. The GDPR introduced changes which will give you greater control over your personal information, including a right to object to the processing of your personal information where that processing is carried out for our business purposes.

This data privacy notice sets out how we collect, use and protect your personal information and your rights in relation to your information. Please take time to read this notice carefully. If you have any questions about how we use your information, please contact us at the details below.

Personal information is any information, or a combination of pieces of information, that could reasonably allow you to be identified.

Personal Information We Use

We hold or will collect personal information about you from a variety of sources, including information from you directly, information provided by your financial advisor / investment manager provider and information we get from other sources, including public databases.

What Information might we collect directly from you?

The categories of personal information that we collect directly from you may include:

Newcourt Retirement Fund Managers Limited

Father Mathew Hall, 131 Church Street, Dublin 7

- Personal details (for example, your name, date of birth, marital status)
- Your bank details and Personal Public Service Number (PPSN)
- Your contact details (for example, your address, phone number and email address)
- Your identification documents (for example, your passport or driving licence, utility bills or bank statement)
- Details about whom you would like us to consider paying benefits to if you die

How will we use your personal information and why?

The ways we use your information include:

- Identifying you and your survivors and making sure your details are up to date
- Communicating with you
- Calculating and paying your pension benefits
- Implementing trustee decisions - such as whether to agree to early retirement or how to distribute benefits after your death

We must have a legal reason to use your personal information

This will usually be one of the following:

- To fulfil our legal obligations (including any contractual obligations), which includes making sure that your pension benefits are paid correctly
- To meet our legitimate interests to administer a pension contract efficiently
- To meet the employer's legitimate interests in managing the pension contract
- Using the information is necessary in relation to a legal claim

In a few cases, especially where you have given us information about your health, we need your consent to process your data. Where this applies, you may take back your consent at any time by contacting us using the contact details listed below.

Legitimate Interest

We use your personal information for our legitimate interests as shown below. This doesn't affect your privacy rights. We have taken account of any privacy risks and ensured that your data protection rights are not affected.
